Connecting The Best In The Business To The NEXT In Business

Join us as we commemorate outstanding individuals who assimilate qualities such as business excellence, courageous thinking and action, vision and innovation, inspirational leadership, and community support.

This celebration of excellence will also provide inspiration to the younger generation to pursue their dreams with dedication and hard work. Our scholarship recipients are role models for their peers and the K-12 students that Junior Achievement serves.

About Junior Achievement

At Junior Achievement, young people are given the knowledge and skills they need to own their own economic success, plan for their future, and make smart academic and economic choices. Our corporate and community volunteers deliver relevant, hands-on experiences that give over 29,000 Arkansas students from kindergarten through high school education in financial literacy, work readiness, and entrepreneurship.

Volunteer for JA

By being a JA volunteer and sharing your personal and professional experiences and skills with students from your community, you help them make the connection between what they learn in school and life outside the classroom! Volunteering for JA isn't difficult, but it does take commitment. As we all know, most meaningful things do. If you are interested in volunteering, let us know! We are ready to get started!

CAREER SPEAKER VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Volunteer as a guest speaker in the classroom and share information about your career, work, and education experience! You are encouraged to bring props, work samples, or other visuals to help engage students.
