ERICA WESTON PROMOTED TO DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION

In this new role, Erica Weston will be responsible for overseeing the overall Junior Achievement of Arkansas statewide program strategy and education goals. She will ensure the quality and expansion of our programs, manage the effective operation of these initiatives, grants, and lead efforts in volunteer recruitment and training for both volunteers and teachers.

Additionally, Erica will be developing a new school engagement plan and volunteer training policy, working closely with schools and community partners across the state to further our mission and impact. Erica serves on numerous JAUSA education committees.

"I'M HONORED TO BE PROMOTED! I LOOK FORWARD TO
EXPANDING JAS
IMPACT ACROSS
ARKANSAS AS WE
IMPACT OUR FUTURE GENERATIONS."
-ERICA WESTON

"We are excited to see the incredible work she will continue to do in this leadership role", said Tonya Villines, President & CEO. Weston holds a Master of Business Administration with concentration in business leadership from Southern Wesleyan University, and a Bachelor of Science degree in Human Services with a minor in psychology and sociology.

WATSON CHAPEL PARTNERS WITH JA

Beginning this school year, students from Watson Chapel's elementary to high school levels will benefit from JA's proven programs designed to inspire and prepare young people for economic success.

FUNDED BY:

"JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT OF ARKANSAS IS MORE THAN A PROGRAM; IT'S A PARTNERSHIP THAT WILL EMPOWER OUR SCHOLARS IN FINANCIAL LITERACY, ENTREPRENEURSHIP, AND DEVELOPMENT IN THE 21ST CENTURY. THROUGH THIS COLLABORATION, WATSON CHAPEL SCHOOL DISTRICT WILL CONTINUE TO PREPARE STUDENTS FOR TOMORROW'S OPPORTUNITIES." - DR. KEITH MCGEE
